

Ms LIN Yi Ying

Chairman of the Board, Plahan Symbiosis Care Labor Cooperative

Yi-Ying has been devoted to Senior Citizens Welfare and Care for more than 20 years. During her term of Executive Director in Hondao Senior Citizen's Welfare Foundation, she launch the project- “Go Grandriders!” leading all seniors citizens bravely and courageously pursuing their dreams.

Now, from the base of Plahan Open Living Lab, with new innovation thinking, the “All in One” caring and service network” is introduced, implementing the rural area and hometown services, attracting the youngsters returning to work at their hometown. It also stimulates the grass-roots mutual assistant vitality offering integrated and diversified cares for the senior citizens.

This project attracts and creates more job opportunities and flips the concepts of caring of mass community, and also develops the innovative social planning in Long-term care.

Topic: Long Term Caring as Dim Light at Night - Standing from Aboriginal Tribes, and Marching into New Taipei City

Because of remoteness and lack of resources, the indigenous tribes are like isolated islands. During the outbreak of the May pandemic in Taiwan, New Taipei City had the largest number of confirmed pandemic cases (COVID-19). Although New Taipei City is the largest city in Taiwan, homes instantly became islands.

The speaker adhered to the pioneering spirit of the movie "Go Grandriders" which was conducted by her, invested in indigenous areas three years ago and effectively established various local innovations, and now quickly formed a group of professions, due to the needs of the pandemic, firmly stepping into the high risk care of the confirmed pandemic cases in New Taipei, becoming the warmest force and timely rain in the pandemic era.

題目：微光中的長照~前進偏鄉部落 前進疫情新北~

原鄉部落因偏遠，資源匱乏，形同孤島。台灣五月疫情爆發之下，新北市確診數最大量，新北市雖是台灣第一大城，但也因確診，居家瞬間成孤島。講者秉持著不老騎士的開創精神，三年前投入偏鄉，有效開創原鄉部落的在地創生，且因疫情需要，迅速整軍投入新北確診高風險的照顧，成為疫中及時雨最溫暖的力量。
